SERIOUSLY INJURED.

Dr. Webber Thrown Violently from His Horse.

The Virginia Chronicle of the 25th instant says: Dr. Webber was seriously injured yesterday through being thrown from the back of a horse. While passing the vicinity of the Chollar hoisting works the whistle blew for noon. The sound frightened the animal which the Doctor was riding and it shied suddenly, throwing him to the ground, his right side striking on a casting lying by the roadway.

He was taken to his rooms and attended by the entire medical faculty of Storey county. It was found that he had received several severe scalp wounds and was seriously injured in the region of the liver. He is suffering intense pain from the latter wound, and fears are entertained that the vital organ was ruptured by the fall. In that case his recovery is extremely doubtful.

The animal the Doctor was riding is the same one which threw him from a buggy several months ago, the fall breaking several of his ribs. The Doctor is a good horseman, and as the animal is usually gentle he was not prepared for any sudden movement on its part through fright or he could have held his seat in the saddle.

A Big Irrigation Scheme.

The Inyo Register of April 14th says: Parties from Carson and Reno have been paying frequent and prolonged visits to Inyo of late, and while it was patent some enterprise was in contemplation, just what could not until recently be ascertained. The facts are, however, as we have learned, that the largest irrigation canal in the county is soon to be commenced, and some 20,000 acres of land brought under cultivation. This canal is to be taken from the river on the eastern side, near Chrysopolis. Its capacity will be 15,000 inches and its width fifty feet at the bottom, and the estimated depth of water will be three feet. Twenty thousand acres of land have been located, and the ditch to reach this land will be twenty-five miles in length—in fact, extending from the point mentioned clear to the lake. There is abundant capital and energy behind the enterprise, and it will undoubtedly be pushed to completion.

From Ex-Senator Al. Daggett.

The Hon. Albert Daggett, writing from the Senate Chamber, Albany, New York, says:

I have used Allcock's Porous Plasters for the past 10 years with marked results. I have found them especially effective when depleted and worn out from weeks of incessant labors in political campaigns; the application of them to my chest and spine gave me great relief when my voice had become hoarse and worn down from speaking in the open air. It seemed to act as a tonic to the whole system, curing the soreness consequent from over-exertion and restoring the tone of the system more readily than any remedy I have ever found. I have also used them for rheumatism with very beneficial results.

Unreliable Wild Geese.

"We have lost all confidence," wails a Missouri editor, "in the integrity of the wild geese. He is an ungodly fraud. Day before yesterday a flock passed over this office, going north. Relying on this indication for warm weather, we let the fire in the office stove go out that night and it turned cold, everything froze solid, the ink bottle broke, and when it thawed out yesterday it ran all over the office Bible and ruined it—the only Bible in this Congressional district."

Dana on Cleveland's Popularity.

Charles A. Dana, of the New York Sun, is said to have predicted to a Mail and Express reporter, that President Cleveland will not have the support of the delegation of his State in the next National Democratic Convention. "I do not believe," says Mr. Dana, "he will have even a minority of that delegation."

Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in.

Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, plains and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof that Green's August Flower will make them free from disease as when born. Dyspepsia and liver complaint are the direct causes of 75 per cent. of such maladies as biliousness, indigestion, sick headache, costiveness, nervous prostration, dizziness, yawning during the day and disturbed sleep at night, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters induces unwelcome energy into the enfeebled and nervous, endowing them with muscular energy, an ability to repose healthfully and digest without inconvenience. Nervousness, headache, biliousness, impaired appetite and a feeble, dispirited stomach, are all speedily set right by this matchless regulator and invigorator. The mineral poisons, among them strychnia and nuxvomica, are never safe tonics, even in infinitesimal doses. The Bitters answer the purpose more effectually, and can be relied upon as perfectly safe by the most prudent. Fever, kidney trouble, rheumatism and rheumatism yield to it.

Man Wants a Tonic

When there is a lack of elastic energy in the system, shown by a sensation of languor and unrest in the morning, frequently yawning during the day and disturbed sleep at night, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters induces unwelcome energy into the enfeebled and nervous, endowing them with muscular energy, an ability to repose healthfully and digest without inconvenience. Nervousness, headache, biliousness, impaired appetite and a feeble, dispirited stomach, are all speedily set right by this matchless regulator and invigorator. The mineral poisons, among them strychnia and nuxvomica, are never safe tonics, even in infinitesimal doses. The Bitters answer the purpose more effectually, and can be relied upon as perfectly safe by the most prudent. Fever, kidney trouble, rheumatism and rheumatism yield to it.

TUESDAY, APRIL 26, 1887

Very frequently of late have been published articles concerning the utter worthlessness of many of this Government's naval vessels. That many of them are worse than the worst tub-boats of private ownership than venture upon the high seas cannot be disputed. A few summers ago one of them, that was presided over by a corps of high-priced and pompous officials was, while on New York waters, run into by a ferry-boat and sunk. Another illustration of the worthless character of the service is learned from the following, which is extracted from the Oakland (Cal.) Times of last Friday:

The reckless undertaking of attempting to make a perilous voyage as from Mare Island to San Francisco in a vessel belonging to the United States Navy came very near proving disastrous to all on board. Last Tuesday morning the tug-boat Monterey started from the navy yard for San Francisco with a party of naval officers and their families on board. When opposite the magazine at the lower end of the Island, the steamer blew out its cylinder head. Fortunately no one was injured. The steamer Julia chanced to be close by and running alongside the passengers were transferred and proceeded to San Francisco by rail. The Monterey was towed back to Mare Island. Nothing more is necessary to prove the desperate character of our naval officers than the above recital of facts, but that they should have allowed their families to engage in such a desperate venture as to attempt such a trip in a Government vessel merits the condemnation of the community. In future they will travel by rail, notwithstanding the passage of the Interstate Commerce bill, for the risk of attempting such perilous trips in our naval vessels is too great, and no ladies or children should be allowed on board hereafter.

While war with Canada is occasionally talked of, it is interesting to enquire into her condition. She has a population of five million, we learn, and a debt of $290,000,000, with assets claimed to amount to $12,000,000 but returning no interest. With twelve times the population of Canada, the United States carries not much more than six times its debt. The average rate of interest on the Canadian debt is 5 1/2 per cent. on bonds that were sold at a discount of from 5 to 12 per cent. This makes the interest burden equivalent to about 5 1/2 per cent., or nearly double that now paid by the United States. The Finance Minister will propose to Parliament a new loan of $50,000,000, of which $30,000,000 will be devoted to paying off a portion of the present debt, but under the most favorable conditions the interest burden alone will still be about $1,500,000. The United States can safely back its pocket-book against Canada's, and as it is money that talks in war we can shout "Hands off" in stentorian tones.

The Washington correspondent of the St. Louis Republican reiterates what he recently wrote that paper concerning the President's determination to not allow his name to go before the Democratic National Convention for a renomination in 1888. The correspondent says that Dorsheimer, of New York, induced Cleveland to withhold the publication of his letter of declination, which had been already prepared.

There are but two ways to end the labor troubles in the United States. One is to prohibit the immigration of wage-laborers from Europe; the other is to find new markets for the products of American skill and industry. The problem presses for a speedy solution, and it should engage the immediate attention of our statesmen.

According to the latest returns the total redemption of trade dollars to date amounts to $3,875,735. It is now thought that the entire redemption will not exceed $6,000,000 or $7,000,000, indicating that there are less of these coins in existence than was at first supposed.

The Irish people are very wisely of the opinion that by sticking to Parnell's policy of peaceful agitation, they can beat the Tories much sooner than they can do by rushing into an ill-considered and probably ruinous insurrection.

TO-DAY'S NEWS.

A LEASED RAILWAY

FIRE AND LOSS OF LIFE

Unveiling Ceremonies of the Calhoun Monument.

Cleveland's Indian Policy.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 26. A special from Minneapolis says: Your correspondent has just returned from Winnebago and Crow Creek reservations, accompanied by Sheriff Harris. The greatest excitement exists. Indians, covered with war paint and armed with Winchester, were met on the road, mounted, and following the troops. The news that the soldiers would drive the settlers from the land is known in every Indian tepee, and the chant of the squaws and braves is heard all night long. A company, reinforced by a mob of Indians, this morning proceeded to carry out the instructions. Sheriff Harris says there are over 300 actual farmers still residing on these lands. Many have plowed over 50 acres and put in seed, all of which will be destroyed. The number of settlers that came under the Cleveland ousting proclamation was over 800. Half-breed Gilliam, a scout, fears trouble with the Sioux, and reports them quietly leaving the Big Sioux reservation. Sheriff Harris returns to-day and will guard his property.

PIERRE, Dak., April 26. Deputy Marshal Harris just arrived from the Winnebago Reservation, says Company E camped twelve miles from Big Bend last night, and was to evict the settlers to-day. The troops are followed by bands of Indians, including a number from the Big Sioux Reservation, who are holding all-night pow-wows and practicing war dances. News came at 7 o'clock that the Big Bend settlers held a meeting to-day and resolved to go quietly away when the soldiers came, but to return as soon as the soldiers start back to Fort Sully. A special from Agent Anderson to Washington reports the settlers moving away quietly. Much apprehension is felt that the Indians, who are bold and reckless, may destroy the settlers' property.

The eviction of the settlers from Big Bend has commenced and a number have already moved. The settlers are given three days' notice to go, and if still on the ground at the expiration of that time, the military takes charge. A poor widow named Ryan, who had her all invested, was ordered off, but having no means, the soldiers loaded her furniture into a wagon, placed the old lady on the top, and carried her to the nearest station. The soldiers will remain three weeks on the Crow Creek reservation, and the Government will fence a greater part of the land.

A Long Lease

NEW YORK, April 26.

The Tribune of to-day says: "The lease of the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company property to the Union Pacific Railway Company through the medium of the Oregon Short Line Railway which is controlled by the Union Pacific, was signed yesterday. The terms of the lease were agreed to in November but many obstacles prevented the accomplishment of the scheme. The last one to be overcome was the hesitation of President Adams of the Union Pacific Company, in regard to a positive guarantee of the provisions of the lease by his company. The basis of the agreement is interest on the bonds, and dividends of six per cent. on the stock for 99 years. On account of legal hindrances the lease is made to the Oregon Short Line Company, but the Union Pacific guarantees the prompt and full performance of all the conditions of the covenant. It is understood that T. J. Potter, Vice-President of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad has accepted the general management of the combined lines, with the rank of First Vice-President, at the earnest solicitation of the Oregon Company. His acceptance was on the sole condition that the lease should be accomplished. The Presidency of the St. Paul road has been offered to Mr. Potter, since the death of Mr. Mitchell, but the signing of the lease yesterday prevents his acceptance."

Expense of a Trial Saved.

BOSTON, April 26.

Dr. J. T. Grant, the noted bigamist, died at Cambridge jail this morning after an illness of several days. He was awaiting trial for robbing and deserting a Cambridge lady immediately after marriage. Other charges of a similar nature were accumulating against him rapidly.

Charge of Venue Denied.

CHICAGO, April 26.

Judge Tuley this morning overruled a motion for a change of venue from Cook county, in the boodle cases, and the trials will therefore take place in Chicago.

Death of a Bishop.

ATLANTA, Ga., April 26.

Rt. Rev. J. W. Beckwith, Bishop of Georgia, died this morning.

Fire and Loss of Life.

PITTSBURG, April 26.

A disastrous fire broke out this morning in Willis Bros' grocery store in a four story building, the upper stories of which were occupied by a number of roomers. The flames were discovered about one o'clock by Willis, who immediately alarmed the inmates. The flames spread rapidly, and before the engines arrived, had gained great headway. The firemen immediately ran ladders to the various stories of the buildings, while the policemen broke in the doors to rescue the inmates, some of whom fell and had to be dragged out. Wm. Eberman, and a Greek named Hoggitzum, jumped from the windows before help could reach them. The Greek was caught by a man on the sidewalk, which presumably saved his life, although his skull was fractured. After the fire was got under control, the bodies of Sophie Boles and Fred Shiplet were found in bed, dead; suffocated by smoke. It is feared that Eberman and Hoggitzum will not recover. The fire is supposed to have been caused by the explosion of natural gas. The loss which was nominal, is covered by insurance.

The Calhoun Monument.

CHARLESTON, S. C., January 26.

Calhoun day broke bright and beautiful, and at an early hour a great throng began to gather along the line of march of the grand military and civic procession which preceded the unveiling ceremonies. Nearly all the chiefs of the State and many prominent visitors from abroad, are here to do honor to the memory of South Carolina's distinguished son. The procession marched through the main streets of the city to March square, where the monument is erected. Upon the arrival of the procession in the square the chief marshal of the day called the vast assemblage to order, and the Mayor, who presided, asked Rev. Chas. Coleworth Pinckney to make the opening prayer.

The following was the order of exercises observed: The unveiling of the monument by 35 young ladies; an artillery salute of 19 guns; ode by Miss Chesbrough; oration by Hon. L. Q. C. Lamar; ode by Mrs. Margaret J. Preston. The rush to hear Secretary Lamar was immense, and the great square was black with people during his speech.

Should Have Been Punished.

NEW YORK, April 26.

A Harrisburg (Pa.) special says: Last Christmas, Della Corbett, Jennie Quay and Ella Kautzman, formerly pupils in the Soldiers' Orphan School, met John Ackley, who was intoxicated, and persuaded him to give them a sleigh ride. The girls, neither of whom is twenty-one years old, became intoxicated and abused the driver in the most beastly manner. They finally beat him over the head as he clung to the sleigh, and left him to die in a stranger's house. The case came up for trial Saturday, when the attorney for the girls spoke touchingly of their neglected training, and to the astonishment of everybody, the District Attorney announced that the Commonwealth would abandon the case, and the girls were acquitted. The murdered man was friendless.

The Militia Called Out.

COLUMBUS, O., April 26.

The Governor this afternoon ordered a Toledo company of National Guards to the scene of a riot at the Paulding county reservoir. The information as outlined to the Governor is that 200 masked men overpowered the guards at the reservoir last night and blew up the banks, saturated the works and timber with oil, and burned them. The Guards were on duty at the instance of the Governor.

A Rough Experience.

NEW YORK, April 26.

Kate Fisher, 16 years old, was found clinging to the piles underneath the dock, at the foot of 28th street this morning. She said she was flung into the water by a young ruffian who had attempted to assault her, but that being able to swim, she managed to save her life. She said she had been in the water 10 hours.

Filled With Ice.

CHEBOYGAN, Mich., April 26.

A north-east wind has filled the straits full of ice, and the steamers and sailing vessels are unable to get through.

A Late Spring.

LYNCHBURG, Va., April 26.

The mountains were covered with snow this morning—weather cool.

FOREIGN DISPATCHES

British Politics.

LONDON, April 26.

It is generally thought that Gladstone's attack upon Mr. Goschen's financial plans will cause the Government to modify its local loan proposals, and probably its proposals relative to the tobacco duty, but it is believed that the main features of the sinking fund and income tax reductions will be maintained.

The Government calculates that the division on a motion to go in Committee on the Coercion bill will be taken on Friday and will result in a former majority, but the Ministerialists admit that in committee they must be ready to accept large amendments or their majority may break up.

Afraid of Hot Weather.

LONDON, April 26.

Dr. Parker has received so many letters urging him against going to Brooklyn in June to conduct the memorial services in honor of the late Henry Ward Beecher, owing to fears that the heat may then be excessive, that he has resolved to postpone his visit until October.

A Reported Lake Disaster.

DULUTH, April 26.

It is rumored that the tug, Minnie Lamont, engaged in breaking ice on Vermilion lake, with a pleasure party on board, met with a disaster, and that 30 lives were lost. No particulars.

Afraid of Complications.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 26.

The Government has prevented the Russian admirals of General Boulanger from sending him a sword of honor, on the ground that such an act would create an erroneous impression in regard to Russia's foreign policy. DeGiers, Foreign Minister, will remain in office.

An European Snow Storm.

LONDON, April 26.

A heavy snow storm prevails in Scotland and Wales.

Bell's "Thistle," which is to go to America to compete for America's cup, was launched this morning. The spectators were favorably impressed with her appearance.

A Sad Sequel.

CITY OF MEXICO, April 26.

LOCAL NEWS.

Happenings of the Day in Reno and Vicinity.

Nevada should Protest.
Editor Gazette:—For years Nevada has been longing for the Reagan bill, supposing that it would put a stop to the charging of freights back from Sacramento, which everyone here and elsewhere believed to be an unjust discrimination. Now the bill has become a law, and instead of its knocking off the back freight it raises both the local and through rate. The most active efforts are being made to kill the bill, while those who hoped to be benefited by it seem to have given up the fight before it began. Does anyone suppose that if the Commission decides against the petition of the railroads for the abrogation of the long and short haul clause, that the Central Pacific will sacrifice its through business for the small amount of freight that comes to Nevada from the East? Nevada should not allow the bill to be killed until it has had a trial, at least without an effort.

GRANGER.

Lieutenant Governor Davis' Lumber Yard.
Wm. Thompson, as manager of the Lake estate, sold to Lieutenant Governor Davis last evening four lots near the Central Pacific railroad, east of the Washoe Mill and Lumber Company's yards. Mr. Davis will shortly engage in the lumber business and will use the lots as a yard for the same. The Central Pacific Railroad Company this morning commenced the work of laying a side-track to it.

A Reminder of 20 Years Ago.
C. H. Stoddard, of the Lake House, received this morning a fine bronze figure of a fireman from A. C. Hendricks, Chief Engineer of the New Haven (Conn.) Fire Department, of which organization Mr. Stoddard was a member some 25 years ago. The recipient naturally appreciates the gift, and has given it a prominent place in his hotel.

A Church Sociable.
Under the auspices of the Guild of Trinity church, there will be held at the Bishop's School on Saturday evening, April 30th, between the hours of 7 and 10 o'clock, a social. The only charge will be a small one for refreshments, the receipts being for the Church Improvement Fund. All friends of the church are cordially invited to be present.

Faith in the Divining Rod.
The Virginia Chronicle of the 25th instant says: The shaft on the Norrie mine in Kirman district, west of Mount Davidson, is down 480 feet. If the divining rod proves infallible, water should be found at a depth of 500 feet below the surface and the body of the main vein a short distance below that level. The formation in the bottom of the shaft is porphyry, carrying a little quartz. The sinking is accomplished with a whim, which will be replaced by a steam hoist plant when required. The shareholders in the mine have unbounded faith in the potency of the divining rod in locating the presence of mineral wealth hidden below the earth's surface, and are sanguine that an extensive and valuable ore development will soon be made in the Norrie.

A Fine Rifle Score.

Parker.....	45	45-90

A Wire Fence Verdict.
A case has been tried in the Superior Court of Lassen county Cal., that is of general interest. One party sued another for damage done to horses by barb wire fence. The fence is built along the public highway, next to the stock range. The plaintiff alleged that his horses were damaged by coming in contact with the fence. The case was tried before a jury and a verdict was given for the plaintiff, the damage being assessed at $575.

Good Advice.
The Carson Tribune gives the Russian Czar the following wholesome advice: The recent attacks on the Czar of Russia have caused the Potentate to hate everything in the shape of Democracy. Try cold water and Republicanism, Aleck, and you won't find Anarchists in your boots. Corn whisky and Jeffersonian Democracy have been the ruin of better men than you are said to be.

Scarlet Fever at Bidwell.
A telegram received last evening by Mrs. E. C. Sessions from her son at Fort Bidwell, announced the death by scarlet fever of her little granddaughter. The three other children of the same family have been down with the same dread disease, but are better.

PERSONAL.

A. Livingstone, the Carson saloon man, was in town last evening.

Judge Webster, Larry Derby and Johnny Murray left last evening for San Francisco.

Judge Bigelow and family are expected to arrive here from Elko next Thursday evening.

Irving Mulholland, son of the editor and proprietor of the Inyo Independent, arrived from Sacramento this morning on his way home, having been summoned by the illness of his father.

A Rich Ore Strike in Lander County.

The Austin Reveille of the 22d instant says: For some time past work has been pushed ahead rapidly on the 120 foot level in the mine at Ophir Canyon, but the ground became so wet, as it was directly under the ravine, and the formation being dangerous, being soft and likely to cave, that work was stopped there and the men started on the next level below further to the south. An upraise was started from this level for the same body of ore which was uncovered a few days since proving a rich strike. The ore in the ledge is five feet thick and assays from $200 to $1,000 per ton. Where they struck the ledge is about 200 feet inside of where they were formerly working and had to stop, so that they have 200 feet on the ledge which they know is very rich and 120 feet of stop. About 20 years ago the same ledge made a big excitement and yielded a handsome profit to the company then owning the mines, but it pinched out and the drift was abandoned. The ledge is improving as they extend it further in, and with 200 feet of a ledge of five feet in thickness between where they struck the ledge by the upraise and the other end of the drift, and the unexplored ground to the south on this same ledge make a very flattering prospect for the company and a harbinger of prosperous times.

A Fatal Accident.
The Salmon City (Idaho) Recorder says: On Wednesday afternoon last Austin Merrill, a well-known citizen residing at the head of Boulder Creek, near Shoup, accidentally shot and killed himself in consequence of the premature discharge of his pistol. It appears that he was in the act of taking a drink of water from a creek, and while in a stooping position consequent thereto, the scabbard of his pistol turned over and the weapon became detached and dropping off was discharged, the ball taking effect in the abdomen, producing almost instant death from hemorrhage. The deceased came from Montana about eight months ago and was interested with Eugene Lent in some mining properties near the head of Boulder Creek. He was much respected in the community where he lived. He was a middle-aged man and unmarried.

Of Interest to Settlers.
A recent order of the United States Land Commissioner is to the effect that hereafter all final proofs must be made either at the Land Office or before the Clerk of the United States Court at the county seat, and such proofs cannot be made in the future before any deputy clerk at any other places.

A Muscular Teacher.
An Alabama committeeman writes to a Normal school that the town is very well satisfied with its teacher. He says: "She tries to make everything just as pleasant as she can. She don't mind work. She takes the axe and cuts wood—went to the woods one evening after school and helped to saw off two cuts after 4 o'clock. The people are very well satisfied with her."

A Business Card.

Cheap Mining and Milling

The annual report of the Superintendent of the Plymouth Con. Mining Company of Amador county, Cal., for the year 1886, shows that the total output from the mine during that period was 101,315 tons, the converting of which into bullion cost only 39 cents per ton. The deepest workings of the mine are 1,400 feet below the surface. Ore assaying only $1.75 per ton is mined at that depth and converted into bullion at a cost that leaves a handsome margin above the cost of production, as the company disburses regularly monthly dividends.

"Read me for my cause, and be patient that ye may read."—Shakespeare.

The Greatest Study of Mankind is Man.

The greatest study of mankind is man. And who ere his wonderful frame doth scan, Ponder and devise to cure an ill, Whether by device, fruit or pill, An equal benefactor is he; and we haste, The inventor of a cathartic of delicious taste.

To do him honor.
Who remembers not how the distressed mother, Her child's entreaties tries to smother, That she insist not the horrid dose be taken. The remembrance e'en now does nausea awaken, And fond father, To be witness of his child's torture, would rather Pay high price, If money could purchase cathartic nice.

We have it now! and great De Prati's name, Appears upon the scroll of Esculapian fame; For after long study what would suit, Has hit upon delicious fruit To cure our ills.

Away at once with draughts and pills; For whether it be indigestion, liver complaint or constipation, Or any disease to which flesh is heir, He here with pride does boldly declare, And on the assertion will wage big, That it can be cured by a Hamburg Fig!

The Innocent Detective.

"Justice.—Madam, what have you against this man?" Complained.—"Well, sir, he tore my dress half off." "How did he do it, madam?" "Stepped on my trail, sir, and"—"Madam, that is impossible. This man is a city detective. He never got on anybody's trail in his life. The prisoner is dismissed."

A Foreigner Holding a Federal Position.

The office of Superintendent of the new Detroit Federal building is said by a correspondent of the Chicago Tribune to be held by a British subject who has not yet declared his intentions to become a citizen of the United States, and an application is to be made to the President to revoke the appointment.

Why suffer with bleeding, blind, itching and ulcerated piles, catarrh, old sores, chapped hands, when a few applications of Fryer's Abietene Ointment is guaranteed to effect a cure. Price, 25 cents. Sold by W. Pinniger, Reno, Nevada. All genuine Abietene preparations bear the fac-simile signature of D. F. Fryer.

A. M. Robinson, Druggist and Apothecary, Bangor, Me., in a letter dated July 1, 1884, says: "I have had many prescriptions for Gilmore's Aromatic Wine from one of our best physicians, who learned of its virtues from those who had used it." No remedy ever produced has met with such marked favor from the medical profession. The Company cheerfully furnish any physician a sample of their Aromatic Wine, and not one of the many hundreds who have given it an examination has ever failed to endorse it as a valuable and reliable remedy. All over the country leading physicians are prescribing it, particularly for the numerous ailments to which females are liable. They know there is no purer, safer or more reliable remedy. Agent for Reno, W. Pinniger.
